We are grateful to our Father for His wonderful counsel that we find in His Everliving Word. Today, I want to address one of the many issues of our day and time that needs addressing. I want to hold up a standard before your eyes. I want to contrast the Christ with religion. The first thing that I want to make clear is that Christianity is not a religion. It never has been and never will be. When we go to the Final Revelation of Aryan God to Aryan man in the Book of Jacob, commonly known as James, we find the only place in Christian writing where the idea of religion is defined. Jacob says regarding pure religion: "Religion purified and of the unmongrelized before God and the Father is this: to visit the orphans and widows in their affliction, keeping himself unspotted from the world" (Jac. 1:27 AST). That is a governmental statement, not a religious statement, and that is also the extent of approved religious practice by the Government of the Most High God on Earth. Anybody that has ever read the Christian writings of the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ and has been taught the racial identity of Israel knows that Jacob's statement is not only a statement of religious policy but is also a racial statement. If you are not a Judeo, then you are distinguished by the fact that you know who your Biblically qualified neighbors are, and you know by the authority of God's Word that there are no mongrels in the Government or the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ. If you don't know that, chances are you are religious but lost to the Government of God, and if you are not participating in God's true Government, walking in the Spirit-Mind of God's Holy Word, then all the religion in the world cannot save you. All the form and fashion, all of the ritualism, will not keep your children from becoming mongrels, and it will not stop the Living God from casting you into the Lake of Fire that God has prepared for the devil and his lying messengers. So what I have to say today is very important.

Now I want to give you a little historical background concerning Aryan men. The practice of religion with its form and its fashion and its rituals and its false piety as we know it today was an invention of a mongrelized mind that our Bibles tell us came about in Babylon, the mother of all harlots. When the Accadian mongrels gained political power in ancient Sumeria, they did everything they could to corrupt ancient Aryan religion. You may see this for yourself by studying the three law codes of the Sumerian society, ending with the law code of Hammurabi. By the time of Hammurabi, ancient Aryan religion, which was defined by race, had given way to the black-head, mongrelized religion. They perverted every symbol, because you see, there was nothing in it for them to start with. No mongrel of mind or body can understand Aryan thought or Aryan religion. If I open up a bag of Alpo dog-food, and I take it and hold it in my hand before your eyes, I don't believe that any of you here will begin salivating. But if I take that same dog-food and hold it before a dog, he displays his natural reflexes and starts getting frisky and can't wait to get the dog-food, because there is something in it for him. I could pick the greenest leaf off of an oak tree, and I could present it to you on a silver platter; you would not find it appetizing, it does not draw you to it. Your nature sees the eating of the leaf as an abhorrence because there is nothing in it for you. I can take that same leaf and give it to a caterpillar and he would start eating immediately; he would have a frenzy, because he is a caterpillar. You can eat all of the oak leaves that you want, and you can become insane and start telling people that you are a caterpillar, but that does not change a thing. God made this world, and God is still God, and God's laws are immutable, and all of the phony philosophy and all of the phony religion and all of the rationalizing does not change one single, immutable, law of God. White men are still white men, and even though they are perverted in many cases, they still have to answer to the laws of white men. So the mongrels assimilated, corrupted, and changed white man's religion. They changed it because they could do nothing else. They corrupted it because that is their nature.

If you want to explain all of the Babylonian religion, and all of the thousands of so-called Christian denominations, the answer is simple: diversity exists because mongrels exist. If you will read your New Covenant, you will find that denominationalism is against Christianity. You will also find that there is only one Christianity, one Christ, one Baptism, one faith or persuasion, one God, one chosen race, and that anybody who disagrees with the New Covenant and Christian writings is not a Christian. The Christian writings are a standard that white men are to measure up to, not to allow mongrels to corrupt. Christianity was the standard that built America. I am not saying that America ever really achieved it, but at least the early Americans, the grass-root people, knew what they were supposed to have aspired to as white men. They at least had an idea of what God's standards and norms of decency are and where you can find them. But we have been under the assault of corruption from the very beginning, and the antichrist, anti-God, religious philosophy of ancient Babylon has been the corrupting force that has sought to create what we call Judeo-Christianity today. It didn't start in America. Your Bible tells you that it started in Babylon.

The idea of ritual over principle started in Babylon. The idea of a form and a fashion started in Babylon. The very idea of a separate religious life, built upon some kind of piety, separated from one's political life, started in Babylon. The idea of defining a nation by geography or political philosophy instead of race started in Babylon. Here is the point that I really want to make: If you look at the Greeks, if you look at the Etruscans, if you look at the Romans, if you look at the ancient Israelites before Moses, you will find that the white man was distinguished by the practice of the patriarchal principle. The progenitor, the papa, was the head of his house, a house was a family, and houses and families were a nation, and they were all of the same aristocratic race. Moreover, the patriarch was the priest, the governor of his family, and the hearth of the home was their altar. In other words, white man's religion was expressed in the care for his racial family, and that is what I mean when I say white man's religion.

Five hundred years before Christ, most white men did not have the concept of religion that contemporary people do today. The ancient Greeks were not a religious people as we think today, nor were the Romans, nor was Abraham, the father of Israel. You do not see the ideas of pagan temples and the religiosity and churchianity in history, in the history of the Greeks, for example, until the Greeks come in contact with Babylonian philosophy, and like the Apostle Paul, we can be thankful for the Scynthians. The Barbaric Germanic peoples of the Scynthians never did capitulate to phony Babylonian religion. In fact, Herodotus tells us that the Scynthians executed several of their leaders whom they caught participating in the old-time Judeoism. Jesus Christ, the Aryan man from Galilee, will tell you clearly in His Word that he did not come to kill off the white race with Babylonian religion, He came that we might have life, both spiritual and racial, more abundantly. He came to knock down the middle walls of religious ritual that separated Aryans from Aryans. He came to destroy mongrelized Babylonian religion.

There are a lot of people who profess to be Christians, but their fruits show that they do not believe the New Covenant of Jesus Christ. They are not willing to obey it or live by it. These same people also tell us that they love the Aryan race. But instead of following the teachings of Christ, they like to play church, they like to talk churchianity. They like to be religious, they like to re-erect all of the stumbling blocks and all of the divisional walls that Christ tore down. They like to practice Babylonian Judeo religion. They like to call God a liar, they like to disagree with His Apostles. What they really like to do is twist the New Covenant to their own damnation. They do not love their race, not really, because they do not love the Lord Jesus Christ. We have a lot of people in all the Judeo churches who love Judeoism more than they love the Word of God and as a result, they are not worth the tits on a bull-hog to God's true racial movement.

Money is a weapon. When men financially support antichrists instead of God's preachers, who are seeking to conform to the plan of white man's salvation that God planned before the foundation of the world, they are participating in their deeds. Someone will say, "Well I support so-and-so because he is ninety percent right." Will someone show me in the Bible where God says that the standard is ninety percent? Do you not know that that is how the antichrist works? He always comes agreeing with us, until he can work in his ten percent of corruption. And chosen children of God, I want you to know that Paul told you the truth, a little leaven, a little corruption, corrupts the whole lump. Corruption is a process, like rust. God's standard is one hundred percent.

The Judeo, Accadian, Edomite, antichrists have used the same arguments for the destruction of God's chosen people ever since Babylon, and today I want to look at some of the dog-shit they propose for their Jewish world order, and make no mistake about it, corrupted "Christianity" is just as evil as any philosophy that ever came out of Babylon. Now there are all kinds of claims made by Judeos in an effort to usurp the authority of the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ, and I want you to know that their arguments have not changed, even from the time that Paul contended with them.

There are those who claim a form and a fashion, traditionalism or traditions of men as their authority. The Jews began this argument along about the time of Esdras and out of that came the traditions of the Talmud. Later, the religionists tried every way in the world to corrupt Christianity. We had the Gnostics, we had the Holy-rollers, we had the Universalists – the Catholics. As you study this period, you find that the stream of pure Christianity goes through the Galatians on into the Celtic church, and those Galatians who would not capitulate to the doctrine of universalim were killed by the Catholics to the tune of over 1,000,000 Galatians and were finally driven from Brittany into Europe, and you find that the Catholic Church, wanting to play religion and wanting to make a religion out of Christianity, was corrupt from its beginning because every principle of Catholicism came directly from Babylon. Much the same may be said about the Greek Orthodox. Men wanting to play religion, setting up a form and a fashion, teaching traditions of men instead of the principles of the Word of God, and always leaving race out of the equation. Incidentally, the reason why I didn't do too well in mathematics in school is because I wouldn't leave race out of the equation . . .

The other assault of Christianity that we can read about in Paul's time was led by the Judaizers - men contending to put the Christian church back under the law of Moses. So they came with their Holy Days and their days of rest, and their arguments about circumcision – in fact Paul calls them the circumcision. Now what you have to understand is that the ones making this argument were representing the Babylonian religion, not the immutable laws of God. Christ did not come to establish a religion. For Christianity is not a religion, it is a life. So all of these Babylonian, antichrist factions are still with us today. We call them Judeos. But what they really are are people who have been deceived by Churchianity into being against Christ or being antichrists. In the Christian Separatist Church, we use the term anti-Anointed, for an antichrist is indeed against Christ and what the New Covenant teaches, but if he is a white man, he is also anti-Anointed. He is deceived into religiosity and has the mind of Satan. So we have men claiming authority to call themselves Christians based upon the traditions of their churches. I want you to know that the term Identity does not mean being more Jewish than Jews, it never has and never will.

The Judeos teach that men must follow the teachings of their church, even if their church contradicts the Word of God. I am not just knocking the Universalists or Catholics, I am telling you the truth about all Judeo religious philosophy. They all teach in one way or another that those who are imprisoned by their lies must follow their denomination, even if God calls them a liar. The Methodist church is filled with homosexuals, the Baptist has capitulated to race-mixing; God's Word clearly teaches that these things are against His immutable laws. So one of the principles of Judeo faith is to teach phony patriotism, but God's Word does not teach you to be loyal to man-made organizations. If you are in Christ, you are a citizen of the Government of God. Your loyalty must be to the Word of God, to the Anointed Nation.

The only people who have any rightful claim to call themselves Christians are those that claim the New Covenant of Jesus Christ as the final revelation of Aryan God to Aryan man. The Christian Scriptures claim complete and final authority in all matters of faith or persuasion, and in all manners of practice. The inspired Word of the Living God is our sole authority in the practice of the Government of God. Paul and other New Covenant writers claim exclusive authority and denounce as unauthoritative anything contrary to their teachings. This includes spiritualism and uncommon, so-called, "Christian experiences". Paul repudiated expressly anyone who claims a visionary statement of the mind in Colossians 2:18. He expressly rejected all religious philosophy, both Jewish and pagan, which was based upon human traditions.

> "Watch, lest anyone should despoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary teachings of the world order, and not according to the Anointed" (Col. 2:8 AST).

The Apostle expressly renounced all false knowledge which the Gnostics were teaching as deep mysteries and this would include some of our "sacred-name" Cabalists who call themselves "Identity", and this also includes the flying-saucer people, who are nothing but high-tech premillennialists and who watch too much damned Jewish television.

> "O Timothy, guard the deposit, having turned away from the profane, empty babblings and opposing theories of the falsely named knowledge, which some having asserted have missed the mark concerning the persuasion" (I Tim. 6:20-21 AST).

He clearly reminded the Galatians that a perverted gospel was not an authoritative gospel or good news, regardless of whoever or whatever popular religious figure or teacher was teaching a phony teaching.

> "only there are some troubling you and desiring to pervert the good message of the Anointed. But even if we or a messenger out of Heaven proclaim a good massage to you beside what we proclaimed [to you], let him be accursed" (Gal. 1:7-8 AST).

Paul consistently maintained that that which he taught was divinely inspired and therefore was the only real authority (I Cor. 11:23; Eph. 1:9; II Cor. 13:10). Paul claimed that the only authority for Christian principles were what was contained in his or the other Apostles' Christian writings (I Thess. 2:13, I Cor. 2:7). These Scriptures also teach that those who heard the teachings of the New Covenant were obligated and required by Almighty God to recognize the Christian writings as the authority of God. When we understand these things, we come to know that the authority of Scripture is objective and absolute. It is not merely something that is subjective and relative as all the Judeo, liberal, antichrist theologians argue. When we are able, brothers and sisters, to get our racial brethren to stand on the New Covenant as God's Final Revelation to Aryan man, then and only then will we have the victory. Being a damned religious antichrist is also a crime against the race, because they are helping the god of this world, the devil and all of Satan's kids, and we know exactly that the devil intends to kill us all. Therefore, I say to you, it is time that the Church started preaching about the twice dead children of hell; they do more harm to the white race than all of the mongrels and Jews combined. See, I am not prejudiced, I have as much against scum-bag white men as I do Jews, because they are God's enemies.

Thus, the New Covenant, the Christian writings, are our only authority for life practice that is pleasing unto God. We are told clearly that all Scripture is "God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in justice" (II Tim. 3:16 AST). Then it tells us why, listen carefully, "so that the man of God may be perfect, fully furnished (or out-fitted) for every good action" (II Tim. 3:17 AST).

The next point that I would like you to apprehend or grab hold of is the fact that our authority is final. The Bible says, "beloved, I had need to write to you, and exhort you to fight earnestly for the persuasion once delivered to the Separated Ones" (Jude 3 AST). That is a clear and explicit statement. It does not matter what existed before the advent of Christ, before the New Covenant. It does not matter what the religion of Zeus or Odin or Moses taught before the final revelation of Jesus Christ our Lord, it does not really matter what Philo may have thought or the Essenes, or Plato; the Christian Covenant in Christ has all authority. Jesus said, "No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:4 AST). The Christian Covenant claims that there is no other name or authority given under heaven or earth whereby men may be saved, and the Scripture is talking about the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Scripture clearly affirms that God the Father has invested all authority in the Anointed.

If you are going to fulfill your destiny, if you are going to be pleasing to God, if you are going to walk in the predestined destiny of the Holy Ones of God, you must do it in the New Covenant of Jesus Anointed and no other way, because it simply does not matter what administration or government that the Israelites were under before Christ, it does not matter what the traditions of the Scynthians were, what mysteries the Greeks taught, because the blood of Jesus Christ has set men free from Babylonian religion, in whatever form or disguise that it may come under. To try it any other way is to be a thief and a robber, that is, a criminal. So I am not being overly judgmental when I tell you that lying preachers are criminals, I am telling you the truth. Everybody is a preacher, they are either preaching for it or against it.

If you want to be free of the demons of hell and their guilt trips and their use of religion to "psych-you-out" mentally and make you afraid of their strong speeches, the only way that it is possible is for you to come to the Lord Jesus Christ and for you to know the truth that makes white men free. I am saying that you must make Christ your only Master, because the reality is that you cannot serve two masters. People are living in fear of the Jews, they are afraid of what their preacher might think. They are afraid to disagree with the so-called Jew scholars. They are afraid to disagree with the King James Version, because they live in fear, the fear of the Babylonian Jews and their phony, antichrist, religious philosophy. I want you to hear me: any philosophy, religious or political, that disagrees with the New Covenant of Jesus Christ in its original autograph writing, is a subjective Babylonian philosophy. It is phony religion because it has no authority since the writing of the New Covenant. If you want to unite the white race to defeat the antichrist mongrel enemies and you really mean it, then the best thing you can do is stop being religious.

My whole point in this sermon is that Christianity is not a religion, it is a life, and the greatest enemy of Aryan man has been Babylonian religious philosophy trying to make a religion out of Christianity. Those who participate in that blasphemous nonsense are calling God a liar. They are saying that Christ has not knocked-down the religious walls of division and created one true life philosophy. They are denying that Christ has made one Anointed Aryan nation out of the Aryan nations. You see my brothers, that is what we have to do. We have to restore the truth to the people to set them free from churchianity, we have to stand on the finished work of Jesus Christ and lift up His Word as the standard, because God has decreed the victory from the foundation of the world, and all of the people running around claiming that they have a better plan than God and that they are smarter than God are in truth usurping the throne of King Jesus, because Jesus is God's appointed Savior for the Aryan race, and unless men are made free by the truth of His New Covenant they will never do anything productive in the plan of God. In fact, they are part of the problem, not part of the solution.

Do you realize that in the founding of America, people did not have a church on every corner? The early common man, usually of Germanic descent, judged a man by whether or not he lived or behaved himself by Christian principles, not by how many times he went to church – a building. A man was judged to be a Christian by what he said and by how he acted. Then along came the so-called great awakening to the Pharisaical principles of false piety and churchianity and religiosity took deep root to bring about the crop of destruction that we see today. Judeoism has substituted a form and a fashion and Babylonian ritualism for the living of the life in the principles of Christ. There is no other way to say it, the majority are deceived, and there is no end to the forms and fashions of religiosity that ungodly men can invent. If you go into a big-shot Episcopal Church, you find there a form and a fashion, very close to the Roman Catholics. If you go into the lowest Pentecostal, Holy-roller church, you will find there a form and a fashion and traditions of men. Yes, the Pentecostals have as much ritual, if not more, as the Universalist Babylonians. Go there sometime. You will find that if you do not clap your hands, boogie like a nigger in heat, and speak in so-called tongues, that you do not have the right form and fashion.

These are rituals of religion, and they are evil, whether it is the so-called priest offering the so-called Eucharist, or the little battered wife fleeing her alcoholic husband for the emotionalism of the ritualism of the religious showdown at the local holiness church. In case you missed it, I want to say it again: Christ did not come to establish a religion, He came that the Aryan race might have life and have it more abundantly. Only the truth of God's Word, adhered to faithfully, can set men free from religiosity and churchianity. The only things taught in the Word of the New Covenant are the principles of the immutable laws of Almighty God. It is called the order of decency. All that men have added to the principles of Positive Christianity has been a form and a fashion. All of the -isms dreamed up by the dark imaginations of Judeo theologians are phony and evil. I will give you a few examples: All Judeo churches teach that the Bible requires some kind of water baptism. Some say that it is sprinkling and pouring, others say that it is full-body immersion. But for those of you who have had Separatist Christian teachings, you know that this is totally untrue.

Judeoism teaches that the Eucharist or the Lord's Supper is a requirement to being a Christian. They have completely missed the point, and they show their ignorance of the Greek language and of the nature of true Christian teachings. I do not doubt that many rituals have been observed or instituted by sincere men to try and convey the great spiritual truths of the principles of Christ. But that is not the point. The point is that Christianity does not teach religious ritualism. I wrote an article some years ago that asked the question, "Was Adolf Hitler a Christian?" I tried to show the knowledge of the principles of Christ held by the German Faith Movement regarding positive Christianity, which incidentally resulted in the only attempt in the last two thousand years to establish a white Aryan nation based upon Christian principles. One of the criticisms that the Judeo antichrists have of the Third Reich is that they supposedly substituted pagan rituals for Christian rituals. They never bother to look at the facts. Under the leadership of Hitler, more Christian churches were built in Nazi Germany than in almost a hundred years before Hitler. More important, more churches were purified and restored to pure, positive Christian teaching than even at the time of Martin Luther.

It is assumed by all of the Judeos that Christianity teaches certain rituals, and they reason, therefore, that other ritual or religious acts cannot be substituted. You are going to have to use your mind to grasp what I am telling you. The assumption that Christianity teaches ritual in a set form and fashion is nothing but an assumption based upon bad theology. Such people are incapable of looking at principle. Their minds are upon irrelevant bullshit. It does not matter to these people that Hitler was practicing every principle of positive Christianity, that he was purging his country of racial degenerates, which in truth is the highest immutable law of God. So they assume and presume, based upon bad theology, to try to condemn the greatest Aryan figure since Aryan Christ. Anyone who will look at the facts beginning with their Bibles, and let God's Word set them free of their religiosity, will change their Jew-inspired opinions of Adolf Hitler. This goes to show that the New Covenant and Hitler cannot be understood until men obey God, because they can never come to know what Hitler called Positive Christianity until they stand and accept the fact that the New Covenant of Jesus Christ is the final revelation of Aryan God to Aryan man. Have you ever wondered why the Jews and the mongrels and the antichrists spend so much time and money trying to convince the American white man that Hitler was some kind of devil? I want you to know that all such propaganda is blasphemy. The reason is because they are afraid that you might get set free by the truth.

If you find out the real facts about the Third Reich, if you find out what the New Covenant really says, they are afraid that you might wake up and join a Christian brotherhood. They are afraid that you might begin cooperating in a spirit of love with your brothers. They are afraid that the Judeo churches might not get your money, and that you might find out who the antichrists really are and what they teach. They are afraid that you might discover the fascist principle of banding together. They are afraid that you might discover your God-given rights as Aryan men and start demanding your own Aryan nation in this world. That is exactly why these devils have consistently done everything that they can to hide the true Word of God from the people. Do you remember when Jim and Tammy Baker took a dive from Jewish favor? Do you remember the Canadian Jew who really owned the property? Does it not make you wonder who finances most of the Judeo television so-called ministries?

Most people have no idea how the whore of Babylon rides the beast. Brothers, God says that there is a day and an hour coming that if we will be faithful to the final revelation of God, that we will be able to wake up the Aryan nations, and God says that when people find out the truth about the true character of Babylon, they are going to scratch their heads and say, "Why was I unable to see that? It was there all the time." Do you have any idea how much money is spent promoting the system of infidelity called premillennialism? You see, it is important for the antichrists who are in your neighborhood to make you believe in a fictitious antichrist who is supposed to come in the future. But the New Covenant says that the antichrist was already there in Paul's day, and that there are many antichrists. And I want you to know that they have attached themselves to the Identity movement as well. It is always the antichrist Jew philosophy that if they can't beat 'em, join 'em. They get in among them and corrupt them, they tell them that they agree with them ninety percent. Then these stupid white men will let the Jews bring in their Satanic lies, and in a few years, they create division, sow discord among brethren, and white men are so stupid that they will not read and study God's Word for themselves. So the antichrists find it easy to corrupt white men.

You say, What is the answer to corruption, Pastor? I say, "let God be true and every man a liar" (Rom. 3:4 AST). That is the God-breathed formula for victory. These devils accuse me of sowing disunity because I point out when they call God a liar. The problem with the Identity movement is that we have not had enough men willing to do that. We have tried to lead by example, we have tried to teach Bible truth by pointing to Nazi Germany, and we have been far too tolerant of Jews in sheep's clothing. When men want to put the Jews and the antichrists and the phony teachers in charge of God's Church, God's Government, it is time for decent men to speak up! God's Word the Bible does not teach tolerance of antichrists, and if there is anyone here today who subscribes to the philosophy of tolerance, he or she is not a warrior of God. God says that unity can only be built upon the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ by letting "God be true and every man a liar." If you are the kind of person who can stand by while men call God a liar, then God must not be your Father. If you have no righteous indignation or no inclination when men call your Heavenly Father a liar, I think I would be checking my pedigree to see what family I actually belong to. If a man takes a swing at me, and God gave me the strength, and my boys did not come to my defense, not only would I kick the man's ass, but I would kick my boys' asses. I would question whether or not they loved me. If I feel that way about my sons, how do you think that the Heavenly Father feels when you sit on your ass and don't defend your Father's reputation against liars?! If you are going to be a soldier of God, you have to start by defending His Word.

America is in the mess that it is in today because of men tolerating indecency and evil. Anarchy and lawlessness can only flourish where good and decent men practice tolerance of evil. The Aryan nation of the Anointed Nation has always taught that our God is a God of war and that we are called to participate in the warfare. But people refuse to hear the war message of the gospel. What exactly is wrong with churchianity? They set up a phony standard of righteousness. They call you out and they say, "Come over here with us, we have an uncommon faith experience, we are special, we have got truth that the rest of you can't have." If you listen to them, you can hear them calling God a liar right in the beginning, because God is not a respecter of persons. In the Anointed Nation, there is only one common faith and one common salvation. So immediately we see that these children are spoiled like rotten milk. They are on an ego trip, they are more holy than the rest of us, or at least that is what they are claiming. By some miracle, God has chosen them to be different, to be smarter than the rest of us, to have knowledge that the rest of us can't have, and here is the real point: they have got all of this special treatment and special knowledge apart from the New Covenant. They claim that God told them to tell you that you have to live like you are under Moses. It does not matter to them that the Apostle Paul, Jesus Christ, and all of the other Apostles called them liars. So now they have you giving up Sunday and you are standing out in your driveway watching for the crest of the New Moon, and they load you up with all of these burdens. How many here have gone to the grocery store and tried to buy everything Kosher?

That is just one side of the antichrist assault. Around the other side of the pill-box comes the Greek philosophy antichrists. They are smarter than God, too. They have all of these ancient mysteries, they have the gnosis. Now they take a different view, they are the Libertine party, but one way or another they teach their universal salvation doctrine. We could call these the Alexander the not-so-Great party. How many of you know that Aristotle, Alexander the so-called Great's teacher, actually went to Babylon to learn the mysteries? Then, he got a job from the King of Macedonia teaching his son one-worldism and the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. What I am trying to tell you is that you must learn to think in principle, you must learn the principles of Christ. You must learn the New Covenant so that you will know when men contradict it. Someone asked me the other day what the Bible meant by studying unto the approval of God. When you know the principles of Christ well enough to be able to recognize antichrist, no matter which way he comes, then and only then have you studied unto the approval of God.

You do not have the option to play religion instead of participating in the war. If that is what you are doing, you have missed the mark. If you have a religion that disagrees with the New Covenant on any point at all, you have missed the mark. It may make you feel good to participate in some of the give-em-ups, that is the asceticism that Babylon teaches, and I would be the first to recommend that some of our skin-head national brethren would do well to drink a few less beers, and I do not doubt that on an individual basis some people need more discipline when it comes to their appetites and passions, but to try to treat these problems by establishing a phony religiosity is not what God has told men to do. God says that you will live "on every word proceeding through the mouth of God" (Matt. 4:4 AST), and while that does indeed include the Scriptures, and I mean the Septuagint, you must understand that the New Covenant takes precedence, legally and authoritatively, over the Old Testament.

I want to say it again loud and clear: the New Covenant has superseded all other authority. It has not necessarily done away with other Holy writings, but it is the ultimate authority in all cases. I do not understand why it is hard for white men to understand that principle, except that they are caught up in playing religion, trying to impress God with activities that God has not sanctioned. Under the law of freedom in Christ, we are free from the burdens of religiosity and ritualism. That does not mean that we throw away earthly wisdom, but it does set the priorities of our mental behavior. God says, "But seek first the government ⌊of God⌋, and His Justice, and all these things will be added to you" (Matt, 6:33 AST). If you are eating too much, drinking too much, or whatever discipline problem you may have, don't make a damn religion out of it, obey God, study the New Covenant as God has told you, and if you are serious with God, by the time you get through seeking to understand God's Government, you won't have any of these other problems. God is not impressed with rituals. I have met some people in Identity who have actually thought of resuming fiery offerings on altars – even the Old Testament that they profess to believe tells them that God is sick of that shit.

I have met people that have told me that I am not a Christian because I use language, yet I say nothing that they themselves do not say, and I never blaspheme, and I never call God a liar, or attack His reputation. Such people are hypocrites. When they hit their finger with a hammer, I wonder if they talk like a man or a woman. Hypocrisy might not be their only problem. I want you to know that all of God's Ambassadors, all of His Apostles, were real men, and that it is the Babylonians, with the philosophy of Satan, who want to feminize Christianity. But Christianity is not for a bunch of pansies, it is for real men, and if you are a white man, and you live your life in this world, and you never become a Christian, then you will fail at being the kind of man that God appointed you to be because it takes guts to be a real Christian, it always has and it always will because Christians are men of principle, not of form and fashion.

Someone may say, "Well, Pastor, doesn't it say that circumcision is required of Israel in the Old Testament?" Yes, indeed it does; but we are not under Moses' administration, we are under Christ's administration of government, and the New Covenant says that if you submit to that kind of ritualism, the blood of Christ doesn't do you a bit of good. Then the Judaizers holler their old arguments that we are teaching "no law." I want you to know that that is a lie. God's laws are immutable, both in nature and in His Word. We are under the same law. God has not changed, but we are under a different administration of the same law. You see how simple it really is. You are either marching with the saints of God or with the hordes of the ungodly. You are either with Him or against Him, there is no middle ground, no neutral status quo, no sitting on the fence.

When we come to discuss the different denominations of Israelites verses the Jews, we find that there were a number of incredible distinctions. Israelite theology had from its beginning allowed the proselytizing or conversion of other racially pure whites to the true knowledge of God and therefore into the commonwealth of Israel, and so on this issue we have two different points-of-view. The Israelite theology sought to keep the principle of race. They understood God's racial laws, and that no party had the authority to bring a mongrel non-white into the congregation of the Living God. For this reason, we see when we turn in the New Testament that throughout the Israelite synagogue system Paul makes his way across the civilized world and is virtually welcomed in town after town, always beginning to preach the proclamations of Christ among the Israelite congregations he finds. Many people find it difficult to explain the phenomenal growth of Christianity in the first century. That is because they fail to understand that there already existed in the so-called lost tribes of Israel a denominational system of synagogues throughout the world, and that the racial message of Christ was already an established theological tenet of the true Israelites. On the other hand, the Edomite Jews of Palestine, whose denominational claim was to have the true functioning temple, had compromised the racial principle even before Esdras had returned from Medea Babylon to push through the re-establishment of the Jerusalem temple.

History records that Esdras called for the ethnic cleansing of the Judeans in the establishment of the commonwealth of Judea. Thus, as time went on, the Pharisees developed the doctrine that only the priesthood had to be racially pure, and that others of mongrel lineage, though they could never be priests, could join in the political commonwealth of Judea and therefore be Israelites. In other words, the Judean denomination reduced the issue of racial purity from a religious question to a political question. They invented the doctrine of the separation of Church and state. It was the same tactic that they had used in Sumeria to destroy that great nation.

Shortly after the time of the Macabbees, the Edomite racial faction in Palestine gained political control of Judea in the person of the Herod family. By the time of Jesus Christ, Herod had both a religious and a political party. Thus, when Jesus came preaching the racial message of the Christians, he was for the most part simply taking the theological positions of the majority of the Israelites throughout the world. Jesus Christ called them on the issue of race and this is why they sought to kill him. The Christians took the position that all Israelites are rulers and priests to God, a Holy Nation, and that true Yahwehism was never ordained for mongrels and non-whites. Jesus said that the Jewish Edomite mongrels were children of Satan, and there can be no understanding of Christian theology apart from understanding the racial truths of the Living Christ. The Jewish theology of Judea-Palestine was based upon the Babylonian Talmud, not upon Israelite Scriptures. Their method for perverting the truth was to emphasize ritual over principle. The Jew taught that outward appearances of ritual keeping were the fulfillment of Israelite Yahwehism. But Jesus said that they were liars.

Today, the Judeo churches have been Judaized or Talmudized to the point where they have become modern Pharisees. They emphasize false piety, traditions and rituals of men, and they throw away the principle of racial purity, which is the first principle of Positive Christianity. Jesus continually referred to the Pharisaical Judeans as hypocrites, because their theology was built upon hypocrisy. They were hypocrites because they were not keeping the explicitly stated law of God: "You will not mongrelize." They were hypocrites because they were preaching false nationalism that was based upon geography and political compromise instead of race. The Jews were willing to proselytize anyone into their denomination and community who was willing to adopt their Talmudic teachings. They did not care what his racial descent may have been as long as he was willing to be a patriotic member of the Jewish state. How did the Jews get around the explicit racial statements and laws of the Scriptures? Very simple. They simply claimed that these racial laws only pertained to the priesthood and they were not binding on other members of the Jewish state. This allowed them to give the political power to the Edomite mongrel, Herod, who in turn used his power to eventually destroy the white priesthood.

The white priests of Judea had been bought off by the love of money. They had sold the true principles of Yahwehism for a perpetual job and the right to split the spoils of the temple, as long as they let the mongrels do the singing. Read the book of Esdras. But this compromise with death and hell had given the mongrels the political power, and the Israelites in dispersion throughout the world saw the hypocrisy of the Jewish state of Palestine. For this reason, Jesus said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel" (Matt. 15:24 AST). There was quite a number of the lost sheep of the house of Israel in the Jewish state of Judea. Some were deceived by the Pharisaical denomination. They were pulled between the loyalty to an illegal political state and the greater commonwealth of Israel founded upon true Yahwehism. When we begin to turn through the record, we find that John the Baptist was a true Israelite of the priesthood family. But we also find John fighting against the Edomite mongrels known as the Jews. Many people do not understand that according to the priestly system it should have been John the Baptist's turn to be high priest in Judea at the time of Jesus Christ. But John had forfeited his birthright to preach the gospel or the good news of the Kingdom of Israel. He had become a prophet or a preacher in the traditions of the so-called lost tribes of Israel, and he was eventually murdered by the Jews for publicly pointing out the evils of the ruling Edomite Herodian family. Nevertheless, John the Purifier lived long enough to turn over all priestly authority to the Christ. Paul was another Israelite of the tribe of Benjamin caught up in the hypocritical theology of the Pharisees. He too had been taught to believe in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of all men regardless of race. He had studied at the feet of Gameliel. He had held the coats of the mongrelized Jews who viciously murdered Stephen. He had risen, though a pure white man, to high rank in the Jewish secret police. He had murdered thousands of Israelite Christians, and at the time of his famous conversion he was on his way to Damascus to murder hundreds of other Israelites who maintained a community there.

When the racial truth came to Paul, and the scales of Pharisaical hypocrisy fell from his eyes, he became one of the greatest Christians of history, and certainly the greatest Israelite theologian of all times. He joined other Israelites who had accepted the message of the Anointed and spent the rest of his life fighting against the Jews. More than any other writer, Paul understood the real issues of Israelite theology. He understood the hypocrisy of false piety and establishing ritualism at the expense of the principles, that is to say the laws of God. The world would not see another great Aryan thinker of the degree of dedication of the Apostle Paul until the twentieth century in the person of Adolf Hitler. It always makes Judeo types angry when I speak of the Anointed Christianity of Adolf Hitler. But tell me, who else can you point to in the last 2000 years who has sought to fulfill on a national basis the divine mandates of Almighty God for the chosen race? The real evil person of the twentieth century was Jew-boy Joe Stalin. Now we have proclaimed today on the authority of God's Word that the Christian Scriptures, the New Covenant, is the final revelation of Aryan God to Aryan man, and we believe that we have proven that point to anyone who believes in Jesus Christ. But still there are a lot of people who are confused by the confusion of Babylon when it comes to the issue of understanding law.

When we say final revelation, finished work of Jesus Christ, all authoritative, we mean by those words and phrases that the New Covenant is the law of God. I realize that there are a lot of people who read about the law or read the word law in the New Covenant and they are so ignorant of what the New Covenant actually says that the Judeos come along and deceive them into believing that every time the word law is mentioned in the New Covenant, it is in reference to the law of Moses. Nothing could be further from the truth. But just for the record, let us look for a moment at the Old Covenant, Old Testament, and analytically determine what claims are made.

The Old Testament consists of statements or groups of statements which are called law by those in authority to designate law, and we are referring to Moses and the prophets who were inspired men of God and expressly claim to be speaking for God, so it is God who designates law in the Old Testament. The Hebrew term for law is torah. It occurs in the Masoretic, so-called Hebrew Text, some 220 times. It is translated in the Septuagint Greek Scriptures by the term nomos, which is also the New Covenant word for law, and which is found in the New Covenant 197 times, according to most authorities. The word torah carried three principle meanings: 1) direction, 2) instruction, 3) and law. We could add to this the word rule as well. The foremost idea in the Old Covenant is law. However, if the directions or instructions in a given context are given by God, then they constitute law.

By law, it is meant a rule laid down for the guidance of an intelligent being, by an intelligent being having power over him. In Exodus 24:12, God commanded Moses to come up into the mountain to receive the law or torah.

In Deuteronomy 31:24-26, we have the record of Moses entrusting the Levites with custody of the Book of the Law, and here we are talking about the torah of the Pentateuch, which is in reference to the first five books of the Old Testament. Later in history, when the Samaritan Church split from the Judean Church, they recognized only the first five books, or the Pentateuch, as the law of God. It is the Jews of Palestine who added more to the Old Testament, and there are some very interesting arguments between the Jews and the Samaritans, especially over which mountain Moses was supposed to have designated as the Holy Mountain. There are considerable other differences between the Samaritan denomination and the Jew Pharisee denomination and another denomination known as the Essenes. The point is that by the time of Christ, there were quite a number of different denominations having different points-of-view over what constituted canonicity. But getting back to our discussion, we see that by Moses giving the custody of the written law to the Levites we are talking about a law that was written down. In other words, it was in written form, and it is very important to note that there is no authority for the Jewish claims of a verbal tradition.

Now remember, we are talking about the law, and so the question arises, Is this the first time that Israelite men had the law of God? If you will check the record, you will see that even before the giving of the law to Moses, God had given His law to Abraham in Genesis 26:5, and remember, we are talking about the immutable principles of the immutable God. So it is clear that God intended the instructions or rules that we find recorded in the Old Testament to be called law and to be recognized as law. Moreover, it is clear that the Law-giver was none other than Almighty God Himself. Isaiah declared, God is our Law-giver (Isaiah 23:22), and the Apostle Jacob backs him up in Jacob 4:12 (AST): "One is the Lawgiver and Judge ..."

We believe that God had the authority to decree law and his spokesman had the authority to declare it to the people of Israel. The statements of law in the Old Testament are held up to be law, and therefore they demand obedience. So we find Moses commanded Israel to hearken unto the voice of Yahweh, and to observe shamar and do asah, his commandments. (Deut. 28:1-2). The words of the law were to be obeyed, hearkened unto, taken heed of and observed, kept and done.

Now when we study these laws, we see that they comprise the constitutional elements of law, and hierarchically speaking, they fall into categories of commandments and divine instructions. In Deuteronomy 26:16-18 Moses declared, "This day, Yahweh thy God, commandeth thee to do these statutes (choq) and ordinances (mishpot) . . . and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments (miswah)." These words are representative of a constant theme running throughout the Old Testament, a theme which even predates the giving of the law on Sinai (Gen. 26:5). In Psalms 119, the word commandment (miswah) is found no less than 21 times. Commandments which encompass statutes, judgments or ordinances and precepts are the constituent elements of law. Without commands or divine instructions there can be no law. In these writings the Hebrew word torah stands for the collective body of these constituent elements. So we see that the immutable laws of Almighty God were indeed delivered to Aryan man during the administration of the law by Moses. Now we turn to the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ, and when we do, we find that God Almighty continues to state His immutable laws in writing, and what seems to be hard for a lot of people to understand is that the law that we find in the New Covenant is the same immutable law practiced by Abraham. In other words, God has not changed.

The Bible says that Jesus Christ is "the same yesterday, today, and forever" (Heb. 13:8 AST). But what has changed is the administrators. So in the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ, we have the same law, but under a different administration, and because the New Covenant claims to be the faith once and for all delivered to the Holy Ones, then we are obligated to obey the laws of Christ.

There are two kinds of Judeo preachers in the world: some tell the people that Christians are not under any law at all, and that is a lie, and I am going to prove it; on the other hand, the more blatant Judaizers try to tell the people that they are still under the laws of Moses, and that is a lie and a distortion of the truth. So let us look at the New Covenant and see what the Greek actually teaches.

As we said before, the New Covenant consists of statements or groups of statements which are called law by the Living God who is the only One in authority to determine or to designate law, and I want you to know that Jesus Christ was God in the flesh, Emmanuel, and that the New Covenant tells us clearly that all authority under heaven and earth has been delivered to Anointed Jesus.

Now the term for law in the Greek New Covenant is nomos, and you really need to pay attention to what I am going to say: In the classical Greek period, this word nomos was used to express the will of god or deity, in other words, among the Greeks who called God Zeus, the word nomos meant the will of Zeus or the will of God, or what had been revealed by Zeus. Now as we follow the history of this word, we find that this word also came to be used of the political order of ancient Greece. So the word came to be used in a judicial sense, and by the fifth century BC, it came to mean the written law of the polis or Greek city. It was a common word used in the writings of Plato, Aristotle, and others. As time developed it began to carry a range of meanings, from the rule of political order or social law, all the way to laws of the universe or the natural world order, and eventually it came to express the will of the king. But it has only one basic meaning, although its basic meaning applies differently in different contexts. Nomos always means rules, norms or standards which govern, and this is true whether it is used to express a directive or instructions, that is to say commandments or principles. Thus, nomos, is designed to be obeyed, it is law. We find this word used 197 times in the Septuagint to translate the Hebrew word torah, which as we have said before, means the laws of God as expressed in the writings called Scripture. When used in the New Testament, it is used to express the embodiment of the revelation of God to man – ho nomos, the law. However, this was not the final revelation. The final revelation came in the person of Jesus Christ. He was the Word of God revealed to men, not in parchment and scrolls, but in the flesh of Aryan man. This manifestation of the Word of God fulfilled and replaced all former manifestations. He established a New Order, a New Reign of God among men, and a new Government with new decrees, new standards, new rules, a new administration with greater hopes and promises. He established a New Covenant, and as there was a document or written record of the Old Covenant, the Scriptures, there was also a document or written record of the New Covenant, that is the Christian Scriptures or writings. As the term nomos gained in meaning and depth when identified with the documents of the Old Covenant, it gained much more when identified with the documents of the New Covenant. The new mandate is called nomon teleion or the perfect law of Jacob 1:25; it is called nomon basilikon or the law of freedom of Jacob 2:12; it is called nomou pisteos or the law of persuasion found in Romans 3:27; it is called ho nomos tou pneumatos tes zoes or the law of the mentality of life in Romans 8:2; and it is called ton nomon tou Christou or the law of the Anointed in Galatians 6:2. It cannot be denied that these Greek expressions are in reference to the new rules, norms, standards, and instructions of the new order or the New Covenant. Isaiah said, "And he will tell us his way, and we will walk in it: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the Word of the Lord out of Jerusalem" (Isa. 2:3 LXX). Thus, the New Covenant Christian Scriptures consist of statements or groups of statements which are called law by the One, who above all, has the authority to declare law.

These statements or groups of statements which are contained in the New Covenant are exemplified as law and demand obedience. The same directives found in the Old Covenant in reference to man's responsibilities to the law are also found in the New Covenant. Man is to do the will of the Father (Matt. 7:21); he is to hear and obey the words of Christ (Matt. 7:24); Jesus says, "blessed are those hearing the Word of God and keeping it" (Lk. 11:28 AST). Jesus asks, "why do you call Me 'Master, Master,' and do not do what I say?" (Lk. 6:46) Paul says of man under the Old Covenant, "For as many as failed without the law, also will perish without the law, and as many as failed in the law will be judged through the law" (Rom. 2:12 AST), and in the same theme, Jacob says, "And become doers of the Word and not only hearers, deceiving yourselves" (Jac. 1:22 AST). He then says, > "But he having looked into the perfect law of freedom, and continuing in it, this one has not become a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work. This one will be blessed in his deeds" (Jac. 1:25 AST).

The word in verse 22 is in reference to Jesus Christ, and is thus the same as the perfect law of verse 25. In Romans 6:16-18, Paul says, "Do you not know that to whom you yield yourselves slaves for the obedience, you are slaves to whom you obey, whether of failure to death or obedience to justification? " (AST) When we read scriptures like this one, it is hard to believe that anyone could believe that Paul was against all law. He teaches freedom from the content of specific law, that is the Mosaic law, and those things that were against us, but he does not teach release from the concept of law. As a matter of fact, it is the Christians who establish the law. He says in I Corinthians 9:21 (AST) that he became "...to those without the law, without the law (not being without the law of God, but under the law of the Anointed)..." Ennomos literally means in the midst of the law. Paul saw himself in the midst of the law of Christ. The expression of Christ is declined in the genitive case and should therefore be translated of Christ, and so the phrase literally reads law of Christ. Thus, the law that Paul was under or in the midst of was the law of Christ, which is His word, His sayings, His teachings, and therefore the law here is that which He authored, because He is the author of eternal and racial salvation, and eternal and racial salvation is promised only to those who obey Him by obeying His laws. "He became the Cause of eternal salvation to all those obeying Him" (Heb. 5:9 AST).

Lastly, the New Covenant statements contain the constituent elements of law, that is, commands and divine instructions. Jesus commissioned His Apostles to teach and make disciples or students and to observe all things that He had commanded them (Mat. 28:19-20). The word for commanded is eneteilamen. In John 14:15, He says, "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments" (AST). The word for commandments in that passage is entolas which means commands, orders and decrees. In I Corinthians 14:37, Paul speaks of the things which he writes as the commandments or entole of the Lord. In II Peter 3:2 (AST), Peter refers to the apostolic writings as "...the words having been spoken before by the Separated Prophets and by us, the Ambassadors, by command of the Master and Savior." In the Revelation, the true servants of God are referred to as "...those keeping the commandments of God and having the testimony of Jesus" (Rev. 12:17 AST). In I Peter 4:11, the instructions of the New Covenant are called oracles of God or loga Theou. In II Peter, Paul's writings are called Scripture (II Pet. 3:16). And in I Thessalonians 2:13, the teachings of the Apostles are called the word of God or logon Theou.

Thus, in that the New Covenant consists of commandments, that is, the Word of God, the Word of Christ, the teachings of Christ, the sayings of Christ, the oracles of God, and Scripture, and the fact that they can be blasphemed, then the New Covenant contains all of the constituent elements of law. Remember, Christ did not come to do away with law, he came to fulfill it. Thus, we have proven that the New Covenant consists of statements or groups of statements that are called law by those in authority to designate law and are exemplified as law which demands obedience, and are comprised of the constituent elements of law, that is, commands and divine instructions, and therefore the only logical conclusion to be drawn is that the New Covenant is Law, and the final revelation of it.

I hope today that those of you here are in the midst of the law of Christ. There is only one way to defeat the antichrist enemy, and that is by sticking to the script of the New Covenant. Nobody is smarter than God, nobody has more wisdom than God's Holy Spirit of Wisdom. It is true that God's people are perishing for lack of knowledge, and a lot of people who quote that scripture fail to tell the people that there is knowledge of truth that doesn't do anybody a bit of good. The only knowledge that saves anybody is a full knowledge of truth, that is, epignosis. I want to encourage each and every one of you to stand fast in the truth and the favor that has come by Jesus Christ our Master. Do not let men rob you of your freedom. Today I have presented you a choice. Religion or life. You must make that choice one way or the other. There is no middle ground. The only hope for salvation for us as a race, as the royal family of God, is to faithfully adhere to God's plan. God planned our way to victory before the foundation of the world, and if you have heard nothing else that was taught here today, be sure and understand that God's plan for victory is the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ. Let us pray . . .
